B2/C2 Thema course:

Youth culture, music and fashion in the UK – 50 years of creativity 1960-2010

Explore 50 years of incredibly vibrant youth culture and enjoy an active and holistic approach to language development through a variety of stimulating multimedia input and participation in highly interactive activities, projects and presentations. Students will hone their expressive skills in English, while improving their advanced level understanding, pronunciation and mastery of idiom and register.

The course is aimed at students who have at least a post-B2 level of English (B2-C2). All materials will be provided by the teacher.
